

Pastry Without Butter.

The American pie has been subject to more abuse from foreign writers than any other of our distinctive products, if we except the recent tirades against the American hog. And yet we cannot say that it has been altogether undeserved, because of the villainous compound, the thick, hard and heavy, that is too often made to do duty as a "crust," and which by courtesy is called "pastry." Light, tender, flaky, and digestible pie-crust can be made, as well as all kinds of pastry, most readily by the use of Royal Baking Powder without any butter, or with half the usual proportion, if preferred, or with a small quantity of lard or other shortening as desired. Pie-crust thus made is much more whole some and digestible, besides being more economical and easier prepared. In addition to saving all the butter if desired, one-third the flour is also dispensed with, as the crust is rolled that much thinner, the leavening qualities of the Royal Baking powders swelling it to the requisite thickness. If dripping or lard be used the Royal Baking Powder removes any unpleasant taste, rendering the crust as short, sweet and pleasant as if made of the finest butter. Those who know the appetizing qualities of the genuine home-made American pie will rejoice that by the aid of Royal Baking Powder in the pastry it can be made quite as digestible as it is delicious.

Whisky Poesy.

Little drops of water,
Little grains of corn,
Make the festive whisky
And the morning horn.
And the little cocktills,
Humble though they be,
Make swelled heads and fill the Pen-i-ten-tia-ry.

"I was much benefitted by Athlophoros. We handle it and recommend it without reservation," writes Dr. H. Cooney, of Bryan, Ohio, in reference to the merits of this great and approved specific for all cases of rheumatism and neuralgia.

A despatch from London says that the Jewish Association for the Diffusion of Knowledge has adopted the revised version of the Old Testament as the basis for a new edition of the Scriptures which is about to be issued for the use of English-speaking Jews.

AYER'S

SUGAR CATHARTIC COATED PILLS

CURE

Headache, Nausea, Dizziness, and Drowsiness. They stimulate the Stomach, Liver, and Bowels, to healthy action, assist digestion, and increase the appetite. They combine cathartic, diuretic, and tonic properties of the greatest value, are a purely vegetable compound, and may be taken with perfect safety, either by children or adults. E. L. Thomas, Framingham, Mass., writes: "For a number of years I was subject to violent Headaches, arising from a disordered condition of the stomach and bowels. About a year ago I commenced the use of Ayer's Pills, and have not had a headache since." W. P. Hannah, Gormley P. O., York Co., Ont., writes: "I have used Ayer's Pills for the last thirty years, and can safely say that I have never found their equal as a cathartic medicine. I am never without them in my house." C. D. Moore, Elgin, Ill., writes: "Indigestion, Headache, and Loss of Appetite, had so weakened and debilitated my system, that I was obliged to give up work. After being under the doctor's care for two weeks, without getting any relief, I began taking Ayer's Pills. My appetite and strength returned, and I was soon enabled to resume my work, in perfect health."

REBUKING THE POLITICIANS.

President Cleveland's sharp letter of rebuke to a prominent politician who had signed his name to a letter of recommendation of a candidate for office, and who had then written a private letter to the President protesting against the appointment being made, was a forcible reminder of the careless and disingenuous ways of too many politicians and of that easy-going American good nature which would refuse to no one, however unworthy, so slight a favor as the signing of your name to a piece of paper. Still there are testimonials and testimonials. Perhaps we should not expect too much from the politicians, but in many other callings a high standard must be preserved. This can only be done by the exercise of great care and vigilance, but when these are observed the recommendation becomes of great value. One cannot but be struck by this fact in looking over the testimonials which Athlophoros has had from distinguished persons in every part of the country. The high character of those who in interviews or in letters have testified to its great worth as a remedy for rheumatism and neuralgia can leave no doubt on this point. A few of these words of recommendation from representative men of Ohio, follow:

John T. Hearn, the publisher of The Valley Sentinel at Sidney, O., says:

"Athlophoros has given my wife more relief from rheumatism and neuralgia than anything she ever tried, and she has tried everything, having been a sufferer for fifteen years. I have let other sufferers here use the medicine with much benefit."

The Rev. Maxwell P. Gaddis, of Dayton, O., a well-known divine, gladly says of the remedy:

"Athlophoros has transcended all expectations and cured already some of our neighbors that were great sufferers."

J. F. W. Rabbe, of 256 Main street, Cincinnati, O., in answer to the question of a visitor regarding his experience with the medicine, said:

"I have used it myself and have given it to my wife and boy with very satisfactory results. In my own case I used it for neuralgia and it gave me very quick relief. My wife and boy were afflicted with rheumatism, the boy being very much swollen and he suffered intense pain. They are both well now and have been ever since they used Athlophoros. While I could not say how it might work with others, it certainly did its duty for me and wife and boy."

John B. Miller, of No. 110 Kerr street, Columbus, O., says:

"My wife has been a terrible sufferer from rheumatism for the past five years until her hands were very much swollen and distorted and the pain was almost unendurable. After using several bottles of Athlophoros the pain and swelling are entirely gone and she is well and perfectly cured of her rheumatism."

Mrs. Margaret Ingham, of No. 634 East Exchange street, Akron, says:

"I have never been troubled with rheumatism since I used Athlophoros over a year ago. I first took the rheumatism in my lower limbs and my knee was much swollen. Afterwards it got into my ankles, which were also greatly swollen. After using two bottles of Athlophoros I was entirely well and could walk as well as ever. I am a great advocate of the medicine, and why should I be as it did so much for me?"

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he does not it can be purchased of us by mail order, but order at once from us, as directed. *Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall Street, New York.

Religious World.

In London there are 100,000 foreigners from all parts of the world. These are visited as far as possible by nine city missionaries, speaking different languages, who are especially appointed to this work.

The conversions among the Telugus since the great awakening in 1877-78 have averaged more than 2,000 a year, the church members now being near 25,000, gathered into thirty-four churches.

Methodist conferences in Wisconsin have declared their belief that Christian men ought not to raise or sell tobacco. Thirty thousand acres of the plant were under cultivation in the State this year, and much comment has been roused.

A week of prayer for young men under the direction of the Young Men's Christian Association throughout the world began on November 8. There are nearly 3,000 of these associations distributed in the various countries of the world, the American organizations being the strongest. They number 629 general associations, 190 college, 69 railroad, 34 colored and 12 German, and their yearly current expenses amount to $750,000. They own 82 buildings and a total net property valued at $4,358,000. The influence of such a body of young men upon young men and upon the world at large must be very great.

Alaska forests contain enough timber to supply the world. The forests of pine, spruce, fir and hemlock cover every island of the archipelago and a goodly portion of the mainland. The trees are straight and tall, and grow close together. The only saw-mill at present in operation is at Douglas Island, and so far there has not been a cord of timber cut for shipment.

One minute's imprisonment in jail was the punishment imposed on a man charged in a Clarendon (Ark.) court with having sold the products of land for which he had failed to pay the rent. The trial occupied several days, and upon the verdict being pronounced the condemned walked across the court room and placed himself in charge of the Sheriff, who took him to the jail, where he served out one minute's time.

The Hon. Neal Dow gives the "results" of prohibition in the State of Maine, in the following pithy sentences:

"Every distillery and brewery has been suppressed; there is not one remaining in the state. The liquor traffic has been reduced at least to one twentieth of its former volume. In more than three-fourths of the state, containing more than three-fourths of our population, the traffic is practically unknown. All our rural districts, our smaller towns and villages, have been delivered from the curse of the saloons, where they were numerous and obtrusive in the old rum time."

Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer imparts a fine gloss and freshness to the hair, and is highly recommended by physicians, clergymen and scientists. It removes dandruff, makes the scalp white and clean, and restores gray hair to its youthful color.

Our readers will find an important new advertisement of Dr. Peter Fahrney, on another page, which merits careful reading. It will appear only one time. It advertises a medicine which has been extensively used for a number of years, and which has given the proprietor quite a reputation. We invite special attention to the "poster" to which reference is made in the advertisement. It is a handsome engraving, substantially executed, with a fine Century Plant in the middle and a column of reading matter on each side. The Medicine of Dr. Fahrney are usually sold by agents, and not by the regular druggists. Dr. Fahrney has established a good reputation as a professional and business man and those who desire to give his Remedies a trial need not hesitate to trust him. Carefully read the advertisement. The Church Advocate.
